2. The above shortlist has been drawn up by including 10 candidates against each vacancy, with additional candidates in case same marks have been obtained by more than one candidate in the 10th rank. On the basis of performance in the subject test, candidates will be called for interview (3 candidates against each vacancy, with additional candidates in case same marks have been obtained by more than one candidate in the 3rd rank). Final selection will be based on performance in the subject test and personal interview in the ratio of 90:10 and subject to verification of eligibility criteria and all relevant certificates/documents. If the same score is obtained by more than one candidate after interview, the candidate senior in age will get priority.

3. If two or more candidates have the same score after interview ( i.e. with 90% weightage for subject test and 10% for interview), the candidate scoring higher marks in the subject test will be ranked higher. If the score still remains same, the candidate possessing the desirable experience as mentioned in the recruitment notice will be ranked higher. If the score still remains same, the candidate senior in age will be ranked higher.

4. If any candidate does not receive the Admit Card by 01.07.2016 he/she may also use a copy downloaded from the net for which the relevant link will be intimated through this website shortly.
